Behavior Agreement

The 4-H Code of Conduct outlined below is in effect for all youth activities involving Rutgers Cooperative Extension and the Department of 4-H Youth Development. It applies to all participants in 4-H activities, with participants defined as 4-H members of any age or grade, all other registered youth and adults, and all other individuals who take part and/or attend 4-H events.

Participants who fail to adhere to the 4-H Code of Conduct may be subject to a range of disciplinary actions. Immediate corrective action will be taken to ensure the safety and welfare of all participants at the event. Additional disciplinary action may be taken upon further investigation of the infraction or incident. Participants in county events shall be subject to policies developed at the county level. Participants in state and national events shall be subject to the policy and process outlined in the "4-H Event and Activities Disciplinary Policy," which can be found at www.nj4h.rutgers.edu/policies.

If an individual continually disrupts the group or engages in illegal behavior, he or she will be given an opportunity to discuss the problem with the chaperones before more drastic action is taken. If, after discussion, the behavior continues, or in the opinion of the chaperones it would be detrimental for the individual to continue with the group, he or she will be sent home at the participant's expense.

4-H Code of Conduct

1. The health, safety, and welfare of others must be respected at all times.
2. Appropriate language and behavior are expected at all times. Profanity, foul or abusive language, inflammatory statements, derogatory comments, or physical altercations toward any group or individual are not permitted.

4. All participants are expected to be on the site of the event at all times. Unauthorized use of vehicles during an event is prohibited.

6. All behavior or language of a sexual nature at 4-H events is inappropriate and unacceptable. Dignified and respectable behavior is expected at all times.
7. Curfew hours must be strictly followed.
8. Behavior during unscheduled free time is subject to the supervision of 4-H staff and chaperones.
9. Dress code standards previously set for the event must be met by all participants (i.e., no sexually suggestive, culturally insensitive, tobacco or alcohol industry sponsored shirts, inappropriately cut shirts, shorts, pants or skirts, etc.).
10. Possession, distribution, or use of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs is prohibited. Prescription drugs and over-the-counter medications may be dispensed by adult chaperones only with written authorization provided by the parent/guardian on the 4-H Event Permission Form for Youth filed for the event.

NEW JERSEY 4-H EQUINE PRESENTATIONS PREPARATION GUIDE

Judging at NJ State 4-H Equine Presentations

It is helpful to visit the Eastern National 4-H Roundup website (4hroundup.com) and look at the guidelines for your type of presentation as you will be judged by these standards at NJ State Equine Presentation competition. In addition, here are some hints that might make you more successful at the NJ State Equine Presentations:

There are time parameter differences from the NJ 4-H county presentations to the NJ 4-H State Equine presentations. You may have to adjust your presentation accordingly. Know the time allowed for your type of presentation. You will be penalized for going under or over the time allowed.

Visuals should be large enough to be seen easily from 30' feet away. You will be judged in a large room at the state and national competition and the judges need to be able to read and see your visuals at a distance. Avoid passing things around to the judges. If a visual is important enough to show, then make it part of your presentation but consider using a magnified photo for smaller items. The contestant must be involved in making or designing any audio/visual aids.

No live animals may be used.

Participating at NJ State 4-H Equine Presentations does not prevent you from competing at NJ State Presentations that are for all 4-H project members. We encourage you to do both.

Be prepared to answer questions from the judges after your presentation. Expect the state and national judges to ask more pertinent questions than you might have had at the county level.

Remember it is recommended that you repeat any questions asked prior to answering them.

4-H members, parents, and friends are encouraged to attend NJ State 4-H Equine Presentations to observe. No one may ask questions after the presentations except for the judges.

During the contest, the contestants may want to introduce themselves by name, county and demonstration topic, but they are not limited to this format.

Contestants should cite their major references after the conclusion of their presentation. This list of sources will not be counted in the allotted time.

Ties will be broken first by the judges' accumulated delivery score, second by the judges' accumulated organization score, and third on content and accuracy score.

Familiarize yourself with the scoring sheet for your type of presentation so that you understand the point allocations and judges' expectations. Actual score sheets can be found at the end of this packet.

NEW JERSEY 4-H EQUINE PRESENTATIONS PREPARATION GUIDE

Venue Information and Resources

A public address system will not be used or allowed during the contest.

We will supply a table, a podium, and two easels. You need to bring any other equipment that you might need including extension cords, additional easels, computer speakers, etc.

A computer slideshow presentation is not required, and many competitors have had great success with posters, flip charts, and other “non-digital” visual aids. Because some competitors choose to present with the aid of a computer slideshow, we have included more detailed information below.

Should you need to project a computer slideshow file such as a PowerPoint or Keynote presentation, please ensure that you bring any cables or adapters necessary for your computer to connect to a VGA connection (pictured right).

While we anticipate this equipment will function as expected, it is strongly suggested that you have a “backup” plan in place. This may include having available: a projector, power cables, visual connection cables and adapters, etc. The competition administrators will not be responsible for the malfunction or misuse of any on-site technology or resources.

NEW JERSEY 4-H EQUINE PRESENTATIONS QUALIFYING FOR NATIONALS

Information about the Eastern National 4-H Horse Roundup

New Jersey 4-H selects and develops four Equine Teams that travel to Kentucky each November to compete against teams from other states. New Jersey sends teams for Horse Judging, Horse Bowl, Hippology, and Presentations.

The presentation team usually consists of an individual presentation, a speech, and a team presentation. The New Jersey 4-H Equine Presentation competition is used to select the four 4-H members who will compete on the National Presentations team. Any 4-H member carrying an equine project that meets the requirements is eligible to attend and compete in NJ State Equine Presentations. These requirements are:

1. Be a member in good standing with a 4-H club in NJ. Be registered in your county program by January 1 of the current year.
2. Have a current equine related project (includes Model Horse projects).
3. Be at least 14 years of age*, but not have reached his or her 19th birthday as of January 1 of the year in which this event is held. Refer to rules and regulations for further details.
4. The subject must pertain to the horse industry.

There are three ways to participate in the Equine Presentation Project.

Team Demonstration/Presentation - This is a team activity, where a team consists of two (2) 4-H Horse, Horse Science, or Model Horse Project members. Team members give a demonstration or illustrated talk on a horse related topic.

Individual Demonstration/Presentation - This is an individual activity, where one (1) 4-H Horse, Horse Science, or Model Horse Project member gives a demonstration or illustrated talk on a horse related topic.

Public Speaking - This is an individual activity, where one (1) 4-H Horse, Horse Science or Model Horse Project member gives a talk (no props used) on a horse related topic.

* The 14-Year-Old Exemption

Only those 4-Hers who compete in the Senior category at State Equine Presentations will have the opportunity to be selected for the National Roundup team. However, Junior members who are 14 years old as of January 1, 2011 are eligible to compete as Senior members for the purpose of qualifying for the National 4-H Horse Roundup team. In order to compete as a Senior, the 4-Her(s) must have completed the declaration form by January 1st of the competition year.

Please note: This declaration requires the member to compete as a Senior in all NJ 4-H horse educational events (Presentations, Horse Bowl, Horse Judging, and Hippology) in a given year. A 4-Her may not compete as a Junior in some events and as a Senior in others.

EASTERN NATIONAL 4-H HORSE ROUNDUP NEW JERSEY STATE TEAM

Each year, 4-H members who place well in the state Hippology, Horse Bowl, Horse Judging, and Equine Presentations contests are considered for the honor of representing New Jersey at the Eastern National 4-H Horse Roundup in Louisville, Kentucky. This event will take place on November 1-4, 2012. Membership in the New Jersey State Roundup Team is a privilege as well as an extraordinary commitment. The extensive time and travel obligations must be considered before accepting a position on the team. Team members and coaches often have to travel statewide to attend practice sessions and fundraising activities.

Each team consists of four members. The Presentations Team consists of one individual presentation, one public speaking presentation, and one team presentation. Teams generally meet weekly from May until the National Roundup in November, and team members must attend a minimum of 80% of meetings, practices, and events. Outside of the team meetings, there are independent assignments and study materials to complete in order to reinforce what is learned at practices and to prepare for upcoming sessions. Individual and team skills must progress toward and meet the standards of a national competition. Attitude and effort must be present. Practicing with the State Team does not guarantee that an individual or a team will compete at the National Roundup.

The team members and coaches do extensive fundraising to help cover the cost of the trip to Kentucky. Aside from a $100 nonrefundable deposit due by the first meeting, team members have the opportunity to fundraise enough to pay for the entire trip. Those who do not satisfy the fundraising requirements will be responsible for all or part of the costs of attending the National Roundup.

In order to participate in the Eastern National 4-H Roundup contestants must be 14 to 18 years of age on January 1st of the year in which the event is held. Students are ineligible to participate in the National Roundup if they are currently enrolled in post-secondary courses that provide specific training for the competitive event in which they are participating. Contestants (including team alternates) may participate in only one contest per year at the Roundup. After competing in this contest, they are ineligible to compete in the same specific contest again. If a 4-Her qualifies to participate on more than one state team, he or she must inform the State 4-H office of his or her intentions by April 15, 2012.

There will be at least one mandatory meeting of the entire team, which the team member and at least one parent/guardian must attend. Missing the mandatory meeting will result in removal from the team except in the unlikely circumstances that a coach has previously excused the absence. The first mandatory meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 24, 2012 at Rutgers University.

NEW JERSEY 4-H EQUINE PRESENTATIONS LEADER GUIDE

The New Jersey 4-H Equine Presentations Project is a project area that is beneficial to the total 4-H Horse Program. By learning to give presentations and demonstrations, 4-Hers gain self-confidence and speaking abilities that are valuable in life situations such as school, the workplace, and the community.

Participation in the Equine Presentation Project helps youth develop skills in research, organization, and public speaking. Ideas, interests, and talents are shared with peers. Club members also learn about working with others when giving a Team Presentation.

Reference Material

Leaders and club members can use the following resources for more information on developing a demonstration, presentation, or speech. It is also recommended that the attached Equine Presentation Score Sheets be reviewed.

Teaching Public Presentations: A 4-H Leader's Guide, Rutgers Cooperative Extension, 4H219

When planning presentations, it is common for the 4-H member to wonder about which topic to choose. As a Leader, be prepared to offer some suggestions to get the 4-Hers on track. Topic ideas for new and younger club members may include:

Safety / The Importance of a Helmet
Catching, Handling, Leading Horses
Grooming Horses
Bridling and Saddling Horses
Types and Parts of Saddles, Bridles, or Harness
Care of Tack and Equipment
Colors and Markings of the Horse
Breeds of Horses and their Use
Basic Horse Nutrition
Dress & Attire for Horse/Rider

Presentation topics for older members should be unique. Senior 4-Hers should choose a topic that is diverse and is of importance and/or interest to the horse industry. Some topics that have been used at the national competition are:

Riding Exercises	3-Day Eventing
Side-Saddle	Bandaging
Fire Prevention	Buying a Horse
Shoeing	Evolution
Horses & the Internet	How Horses See
Equine Ethics	How Horses Communicate
Equine Massage Therapy	Dressage
Trailer Safety	Traveling with Your Horse
Trail Ride Safety	Knot Tying
Pack Trips	Polo
Fox Hunting	Racing

NEW JERSEY 4-H EQUINE PRESENTATIONS LEADER GUIDE

Club Activities

A good club field trip is an expedition to the local or county library. Here, 4-Hers learn how to master library research skills (useful in school and college) such as using card catalogs, microfiches, dictionaries, encyclopedias, reference books, indexes, directories, electronic references, and other sources of information.

In addition to members giving their presentation at club meetings, the 4-Hers can extend their audience in a variety of ways. Speaking to groups outside of 4-H would help fulfill part of the requirements for a Club or Individual Community Service Project. Here are some suggestions where this can be done.

The Public Library - many community and county libraries are looking for evening or Saturday programs for seniors and younger children.

Senior Citizen Centers - welcome people to talk to their group.

Hospitals - will sometimes allow 4-Hers to give presentations in the Children's Area.

Shopping Malls - often have community days where groups are allowed to set up displays and talk about their organization.

There are numerous organizations such as Key Clubs, Rotary, Kiwanis, and other civic groups where 4-Hers would be welcomed as speakers.

Sometimes it is hard to encourage members to get up and talk in front of a group. It may come naturally to some club members, but be very difficult for others. The following activity can be done at one or two club meetings and should instill just enough confidence in shy 4-Hers to make giving a presentation a little easier for them.

Start by gathering a bag of objects from around the house (enough for one item for each person attending the meeting plus one or two extras). Keep it simple—a bar of soap, a can of soda, a bottle of ketchup, a comb, a tooth brush, etc.. Have the club members each draw an item out of the bag. Give them 5 minutes to gather their thoughts about the item they drew from the bag. Then, one at a time, go around the room and have them describe the item in one-minute or less, telling about its color, what it's made of, what it is used for, etc. They will be giving a mini-presentation without even knowing it!

At the next club meeting, gather another bag of items, this time horse related. There could even be two bags, one of simpler items for the beginner and younger members, and the second bag with more difficult items for the older 4-Hers. Repeat the exercise explained above with the new items.

Presentations are a fun and educational and help to develop the skills that help many 4-Hers in preparing for their future.
