South Jersey 4-H Teen Conference is planned by South Jersey 4-H teens in cooperation with county 4-H faculty and staff of Rutgers Cooperative Extension. This event is open to teen in grades 8-13. 4-H Youth Development programs are offered to all youth, K-13 (one year out of high school), on an age- appropriate basis, without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, disability, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait, marital status, civil union status, domestic partnership status, military service, veteran status, and any other category protected by law. Rutgers Cooperative Extension encourages individuals with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. All possible efforts will be made to include rather than exclude youth in events conducted by the 4-H Youth Development Program.

What is South Jersey Teen Conference?

The South Jersey 4-H Teen Conference is an annual ten county conference for teens in grades 8-13 (one year out of high school) that focuses on leadership and personal development.

Each year's conference has specific goals related to the selected program theme. The program is designed by teen delegates on the 2018 SJTC Planning Committee in cooperation with 4-H faculty and staff of Rutgers Cooperative Extension.

This year's theme is "4-H - Building a Brighter Future" and focuses on workforce preparation. Throughout the weekend, teens will:

- take part in experiential activities that reinforce real life
- explore career fields and learn from seasoned industry professionals
- develop their understanding of skills needed in the workplace, such as communications and teamwork
- learn about entrepreneurship from workshop presenters who have developed their passion into a business

SESSION 1 – 8:45-9:45 am

Ranking	Workshop Description
	Workshop Selections: Rank your 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choices for each session

- _____ A. Healthcare – Healthcare occupations and industries are expected to have the fastest employment growth and add the most jobs from now through 2024, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. A panel of healthcare experts, including a doctor, emergency room nurse, an EMT, and an emergency management coordinator for the State of NJ, will share their experiences as a highlight of just some of the many health-related occupations you can pursue.
- _____ B. Military – If service to your country interests you then join Jeff Rigg who will speak about his firsthand experiences from serving in two branches of the military – 12 years in the U.S. Navy during the Cold War and 12 years in the U.S. Coast Guard. Then learn about how his military experience prepared him for his current career with the U.S. Navy as an electrical engineering technician.
- _____ C. Animal Science – What is it like to be a practicing veterinarian or a veterinary technician? Listen to what Dr. Ernie Beier of Beier Veterinary Services has to say about his private practice, which primarily services large animals, provides emergency services and collaborates with large animal rescue groups. Krystle Zinkevich works for the Voorhees Veterinary Center and will also share her experiences as a veterinary technician.
- _____ D. Financial Literacy – Want to know more about how to manage your dollars and cents? In this workshop, you will increase your financial literacy by gaining the knowledge and skills needed to make effective and informed money management decisions, from saving money to understanding your credit score.
- _____ E. Live Saturday Night - Lights – Camera – Action – This workshop is designed for Talent Show participants. All artists – musicians – comics – poets – dancers must attend to participate in the Talent Show.

SESSION 2 – 10:00-11:00 am

Ranking	Workshop Description
	Workshop Selections: Rank your 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choices for each session

- _____ A. Emergency Management – Who are the people who help others during a crisis or emergency? People like Janice Campbell and the Tri-State K-9 Response Team. This group provides certified and trained handler/dog teams for Animal Assisted Activities, Animal Assisted Therapy and Animal Assisted Crisis Response Teams to children, families, neighborhoods, and communities that are in crisis, as well as support for First Responders. They also play an important role in comforting victims of disaster, catastrophe, or violence fostering resilience and self-efficacy.
- _____ B. Marine Science - From the coast out to the deep sea and from plankton to whales: learn about the variety of career options available in the marine sciences. Hear from Dr. Doug Zemeckis of Rutgers Cooperative Extension, whose work focuses on aquaculture and commercial fisheries.

SESSION 2 – 10:00-11:00 am (cont’d)

_____ C. Event Planning – Are you the creative type? Do you enjoy planning and carrying out projects and events? John Whitehead, the owner of Creative Concepts by John, will share his experiences as an event consultation and coordination business owner, while also working fulltime for Big Brothers Big Sisters Independence Region.

_____ D. Career and Technical Education – According to the Association for Career and Technical Education, “Today’s cutting-edge, rigorous and relevant career and technical education (CTE) prepares youth and adults for a wide range of high-wage, high-skill, high-demand careers.” Matt and Keely DiTizio, a career orientation instructor and an agricultural education teacher at Salem County Vo-Tech, will clue you in on careers that stem from the 16 Career Clusters. Consider a profession in such areas as: STEM, agriculture, food and natural resources, the health sciences, manufacturing, and architecture and construction.

_____ E. Food Science – Interested in learning about how food gets from the farm to your fork? Hear from seasoned food industry professional Donna Schaffner, Associate Director of the Rutgers Food Innovation Center, who will discuss the many facets of the food production chain from production and processing to distribution and preparation, as well as the multitude of careers associated with each part of the industry.

SESSION 3 – 11:15-12:15 pm

Ranking	Workshop Description
	Workshop Selections: Rank your 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choices for each session

_____ A. Information Technology – Careers in the information technology (IT) field abound! With about 4 million jobs in IT, this sector is expected to generate an additional 488,500 jobs through 2024, driven by the demand for computer and network security, cloud and mobile technology, big data, and Internet-connected devices such as household appliances. Hear from a panel of IT professionals about their day-to-day experiences in this expanding field.

_____ B. Interior Design - Do you have an eye for design like Dana Falcione? Do you like architecture, color, textures, and design? Learn from this University of Pennsylvania grad and entrepreneur who co-owns Blueprint Studio in Haddonfield, NJ, where she and her business partner offer a full range of interior design services with a focus on kitchen, bath, and custom millwork designs.

_____ C. Horse Training – Become versed in the horse management skills and education that can be applied to a career in the horse training industry. Whether the horse is being prepared for the show ring, leisure, or a therapeutic riding program, you will hear about the crucial roles a trainer plays in the areas of performance, fitness, and obedience.

_____ D. Communications/Public Relations – You are what you post! Do you know how to protect your personal brand on social media so your own words don’t hurt you? Presented by Cheryl Squadrito, owner of Media Friendly, LLC, this workshop will focus on what NOT to post on social media if you’re looking at colleges or for a job. Social media is a great way to stay connected, follow trends and look for work. However, posting or tweeting the wrong message could cause you to lose a good opportunity.

_____ E. Interviewing Skills – Get ready for your next interview by joining Karen Cooley, a 29-year talent acquisition professional with expertise in the professional services and staffing industries. Get tips on how to prepare for an interview, what to do at the interview, and then you will showcase these skills through practice interviews.

Join the 2018 South Jersey 4-H Teen Planning Committee Members in raising funds for Catholic Charities, Diocese of Camden, to aid those devastated by Hurricane Maria, a Category 5 hurricane that made landfall in Puerto Rico on Sept. 20. As a result of the devastation, many residents are continuing to evacuate the island. In the Camden Diocese, thousands have family members who have been impacted. Catholic Charities is providing assistance for evacuees by helping with housing, furniture, food, medical services, counseling and employment.

WHAT WE CAN DO TO HELP:

From now through Feb. 19, 2018, 4-H Teen Councils are asked to raise funds in order to help Catholic Charities with their temporary relocation effort for evacuees from Puerto Rico.

Donations from each county should be forwarded to Camden County 4-H Agent Sharon Kinsey at RCE of Camden County before Feb. 26, 2018 for presentation to Catholic Charities at the 2018 conference. Mail donation to 1301 Park Boulevard, Cherry Hill, NJ 08002. Questions can be directed to her at 856-216-7130 x 2 or kinsey@njaes.rutgers.edu

New Jersey 4-H Code of Conduct

The primary purpose of the New Jersey 4-H Code of Conduct is to ensure the safety and well-being of all participants at 4-H sponsored events and activities. It applies to all participants, with participants defined as 4-H members, their parents, and volunteers.

As a participant in the 4-H program, I will:

- Conduct myself in a courteous manner and treat members, parents, 4-H volunteers, Extension staff, judges and others with respect. Appropriate language and behavior are expected at all times.
- Respect and adhere to the rules and guidelines of the 4-H program including all those specific to a 4-H event or activity.
- Uphold an individual's right to dignity by supporting an environment of inclusion which welcomes involvement of participants from all backgrounds.
- Accept supervision and support from county and state 4-H staff while participating in the 4-H program. This includes acceptance of supervision and support from appointed 4-H volunteers coordinating 4-H events and activities.
- Obey local, state and federal laws.

Participants who fail to adhere to the New Jersey 4-H Code of Conduct are subject to a range of disciplinary actions. Such actions will be taken in compliance with the New Jersey 4-H Discipline Policy and Procedure. When appropriate, immediate corrective action will be taken at the 4-H event to ensure the safety and welfare of all participants.

I understand if I fail to adhere to the above Code of Conduct, I will be subject to disciplinary action and potentially prohibited from attending and participating in the New Jersey 4-H Youth Development program.

New Jersey 4-H Media Policy and Release

The 4-H program routinely promotes activities through various media. This includes, but is not limited to newsletters, newspapers, brochures, and displays. In doing so, the names and photos of members may be included to help tell the 4-H story. However, New Jersey 4-H policy is that on web sites, youth in photos will not be identified by name(s).

- No, do not use my individual picture for any purpose. I will make an effort to avoid opportunities to be in group photos.
- No, do not use my name for any purpose.
